THE FOP

A velvet jacket in a jewel shade teamed with a silk shirt, flowing trousers and patent loafers is every bit the dress code for a second night on the trot.

Comfortable, elegant and a bit sleazy (in a good way), throw on a classic bow tie, and sink into the party like well-dressed syrup.

Emerald velvet blazer, £2,530; cream silk shirt, £1,065; black viscose/satin trousers, £900; black patent leather loafers, £850, all by Tom Ford. Black silk bow tie, £60, by Richard James

Dirty Martini

Recipe: Agostino Perrone, director of mixology, The Connaught; the-connaught.co.uk

Ingredients: 60ml Tanqueray No 10 Gin; 10ml homemade dry vermouth (equal parts Martini Extra Dry, Gancia Bianco and Nolly Prat); 10ml olive brine; olives to garnish
